

Privacy Policy

Beyond Our Shores, Inc. (“BOS”) respects the privacy rights of our online visitors and recognizes the importance of protecting the information we collect about you. This policy statement tells you how we collect information from you and how we use it.

THE DATA BOS COLLECTS

BOS only collects personal information from our online visitors on a voluntary basis and only when you:

- Sign up for newsletter, tagging kit, or to volunteer;
- submit feedback and comments; or
- complete surveys.

Personal information collected may include your name, your organization, email address, phone number, address, and specific information about how you found our site and how you might use our materials.

We do not generally require the above noted personal information in order for you to merely visit and obtain access to any of our websites (“Website”).

In most cases, we will also ask if you would like to receive email from BOS and give you the option of designating “yes” or “no”.

BOS may also collect non-personal information about our online visitors, such as geographic location or the types of platforms a visitor uses, using “cookies”, pixels, web beacons, and other technologies that operate automatically when you visit our Website. If you do not want us to collect information using cookies, you can disable this function in your browser. If you block cookies from us, however, you may not be able to see personalized content and our Website may not function optimally.

How BOS Uses Your Information

BOS use the collected information to give our Website visitors a more relevant online experience and to help us make Website improvements, such as tailoring information to your preferences. The information helps us understand which parts of our Website are the most popular, where our online visitors are going, and how long they spend there.

If you provide BOS with personal information when you visit our Website, we may use the information in our programs and activities. We may enter your information into one of our databases so we can contact you to obtain your input, provide information about our programs and events, request donations, or provide a more personalized online experience.

BOS does not sell, trade, or share our users' personal information. We do not send mailings to our user on behalf of other organizations unless the user has given us specific permission to do so.

BOS may disclose user's personal information in special cases when we have reason to believe that disclosing this information is necessary to identify, contact or bring legal action against someone who may be causing injury to or interference with (either intentionally or unintentionally) BOS's rights or property, other BOS users or anyone else who could be harmed by such activities. We also disclose information as required by law. At any time you may request to correct, update or remove your personal information by contacting us at [beyondourshores@gmail.com]

PCI DSS is the payment card industry security requirement for entities that store, process or transmit cardholder data. PCI DSS Compliance gives consumers the confidence they need to know that organizations accepting donations are doing so in a verified, secure, and consistent fashion. [Vendor Card Vendor Name] received Level 1 PCI compliance - the highest level validation. The use of VeriSign SSL Certificates provides for the highest level of encryption available. These comprehensive standards are intended to help BOS proactively protect your account data — a responsibility we take very seriously.

USER'S ACCEPTANCE OF THESE TERMS

By visiting this Website, you signify your assent to this Privacy Policy. The Policy may be changed or updated from time to time by BOS in its sole discretion without prior notice. Your continued visit to the Website following the posting of any change will mean you accept those changes.
